

The Bible...

PLAGIARIZED?

BACKGROUND - Atheists like to claim the Bible was plagiarized from the Epic of Gilgamesh. They claim the Bible had COPIED stories from TABLET 9, 11, etc. to produce stories like the Virgin Birth, The Flood.

COPY PICK & CHOOSE? - Highly suspicious that all the other religions copied the same stories and essentially NONE of the other Epic's stories, while over thousands of years apart. Second, there are no other EXTERNAL references or mentions of the Epic of Gilgamesh of TABLET 9 or 11 and LATER, but some how all the other religions copied only from Tablet 9 or 11?

JUST CHIP AWAY - Archeologists only need to visit an ancient site, find a old BLANK artifact (rock or stone) with no writings and then chip away and make-up any story they want to tell. Cuneiform Tablets are easily forged as no ink is used, agreed? These Epic of Gilgamesh Tablets looks more and more like a modern-day FORGERY and HOAX fueled by research grants, book deals, i.e., money.
